SHIPPERS' NOTICE.

Steamers Kinau, Claudine and Like- like will call one day late at their regular hours Fourth of July week. WILDER'S STEAMSHIP CO. 6830

MUCH OPIUM WAS ON THE ALAMEDA

Punctual to the minute, as usual, the Oceanic liner Alameda arrived in port at eight o'clock yesterday morning with a good list of passengers and about 950 tons of general freight. The voyage from San Francisco occupied five days and seventeen hours. Thirty-four sacks of mail for Australia arrived by the Alameda and these were transferred to the British steamer Manuka which sailed for the Colonies at noon.

Among the passengers was Dr. W. B. Craig, a well known Christian Church minister, who is here on a vacation trip and during a three months' stay will occupy the pulpit of the Christian church, Alakea street.

A. F. Hunt, agent in charge of the Santa Fe railway station at Williams, on, arrived with his wife for a honeymoon visit to Hawaii.

John Effinger's daughter Dorothy returned after quite a lengthy visit on the coast.

H. T. Hayseiden, of Lawrence & Co., returned after a brief business trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. S. B. Randall, wife of the captain of the tugboat Leslie Baldwin, arrived with her child.

Other arrivals by the steamer were: Captain Smith, formerly master of the wrecked bark Mauna Ala; C. E. V. Dove, the architect; Miss H. M. Hoffman, H. L. Ross, J. S. Koss, James Wakefield, and J. L. Cockburn.

BIG OPIUM SHIPMENT.

The vessel had hardly been moored to the wharf before nineteen boxes, shipped by an express company, were lowered over the side of the vessel to a dray waiting on the wharf. These boxes contained opium and were worth $500 each, or a total of $9500. The shipment has been made on the waterfront that an average of about $5000 worth of opium reaches Honolulu every week.

VESSELS SIGHTED.

The officers of the vessel sighted three schooners during the voyage and the identity of none of them was ascertained. On June 26, at noon, in Lat. 35:09, Long. 129:29, a topmast schooner was sighted steering west. At 9:50 a. m. the following day in Lat. 32:42, Long. 135:10 she sighted a three-masted schooner going in the same direction, and at 12:13 p. m. of the same day in Lat. 32:30, Long. 136:25 she passed a four-masted schooner, also steering west.

Manuka Made Short Stay.

The Canadian-Australian liner Manuka, from Victoria and Vancouver, made but a short stay in port yesterday. She arrived in port at about eight o'clock in the morning and left at noon for the Colonies. She made the voyage from Victoria in six days and nine hours, eclipsing the best previous record for this run by about ten hours. George F. Davies and wife returned, having made the round trip on the vessel. C. J. McCracken and R. Oberwimmer and family were also returning passengers from British Columbia. The Manuka will make another voyage before she is replaced by the Moana.

Korea Six Days Later.

H. Hackfeld & Co., agents for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, give notice that the Korea will arrive here from San Francisco on July 15 instead of her scheduled time of July 9. This delay is caused by the rearrangement of the schedule owing to the quarantining of the liner at Kobe on her last trip to the Orient.

Great Admiral's Long Trip.

The American ship Great Admiral, Captain Watts, arrived off port last night from Newcastle and anchored. The vessel occupied seventy days on the voyage.

Arizonan Sailed Last Night.

The freighter Arizonan sailed for Kahului and Hilo, en route to Delaware Breakwater, at about half-past five o'clock last night.

Bechtel Is Head of Immigration.

Beginning yesterday F. M. Bechtel took charge of all immigration matters in the Territory of Hawaii. In conformity with the belief that conditions would be best met by the consolidation of the official forces in the Immigration Service here, orders were received from Washington yesterday by the Alameda designating the present Immigrant Inspector in charge, F. M. Bechtel, as Chinese Inspector in Charge of Chinese matters in the district comprising the Territory of Hawaii. This order became effective July 1, 1904, and makes no change in the personnel of the force at the station. J. K. Brown continuing in the discharge of his old duties in the Chinese Bureau.

Wounded Negro May Not Live.

At ten o'clock last night it was stated at the Queen's Hospital that the condition of U. S. Harris, the negro shot in a brawl at the Pantheon Saloon on Thursday night, remained about the same as since the doctors gave up the search for the bullet which is buried in his abdomen. It was said that Harris' recovery is doubtful.
